A psalm of David. The LORD is my shepherd, I lack nothing. He makes me lie down in green pastures, he leads me beside quiet waters, he refreshes my soul. He guides me along the right paths for his name's sake. Even though I walk through the darkest valley, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my ...

Psalm 23:1 - Psalm 23:6. The king who had been the shepherd-boy, and had been taken from the quiet sheep-cotes to rule over Israel, sings this little psalm of Him who is the true Shepherd and King of men. We do not know at what period of David's life it was written, but it sounds as if it were the work of his later years. There is a fulness of experience about it, and a tone of subdued ...

In Psalm 23 David writes "Surely goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life" (Psalm 23:6 NIV). David's word for God's tender affection is a term used in the ancient world to mean love that flows out of deep emotion rather than duty. It's a kind and gentle love. That quaint, old word lovingkindness may still be the best translation of all. But, however it is defined, I don't ...

Psalm 6:1 "O LORD, rebuke me not in thine anger, neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure." "In thine anger ... in thy hot displeasure": He does not ask for immunity from judgment, but for the tempering of God's discipline with mercy. We see David asking God not to turn away from him. David, like many of us, is very aware that he has sinned. He knows as we do, that he deserves to feel ...
